

SAVE THE DATE: Open Farm Sunday - 8th June 2025

Mark your calendars! Farming's annual national open day, Open Farm Sunday, returns on 8th June 2025. Hundreds of farms across Britain will open their gates, inviting the public to experience first-hand the incredible work farmers do to produce our food sustainably while caring for nature.

This event is a fantastic family day out, offering everyone the chance to visit a farm, talk with farmers, hear their stories and discover how they are working for a more sustainable future whilst producing food you can trust.

Stay tuned for more details coming soon, but in the meantime, be sure to save the date!

We're here to help with a range of content to support your coverage, including:

- Interviews with farmers across the country
- Photography showcasing life on the farm
- Case studies, stats, and insights into how farmers farm with nature.

For more information and to find farms opening near you, visit www.farmsunday.org or contact the OFS press office at Ceres on 01189 4759596 / openfarmsunday@ceres-pr.co.uk.

We look forward to celebrating the best of British farming with you in June!
